29.10.2014

Sergei Sobyenin addressed to the deputies of the Moscow City Duma an annual report on the results of the Moscow Government's activity and the main parameters of the city's budget for 2015 - 2017. "Every year important political events take place in Moscow. Such an important event of the current year was the election of deputies of the Moscow City Duma. You came to the city's parliament in a time period that is not the easiest. It is easy to work in public authorities when there is a rapid growth of the economy, the growth of budget revenues, and it is much more difficult to work in a situation when the city is in a turbulent period, in the crisis period, when you have to make difficult and not always popular decisions ", - he said.
