On 26 February 2015 Moscow hosted the Third Vasilyevsky readings – The Annual Forum “Public finances: science and practice” organized by the “Budget” magazine in conjunction with the Russian financiers’ Community, as well as with the Research Institute of the RF Ministry of Finance and the Financial University at the Government of the Russian Federation.

The purpose of the forum is to stimulate the development of scientific and practical ideas in the field of economics and finance in Russia. The theme of the forum this year was “Fiscal policy in the context of economic uncertainty.”

Representatives of the RF Ministry of Finance, the State Duma, the Federation Council, the Federal Treasury made reports on the Third Vasilyevsky readings named in honor of the first Russian Minister of Finance A.I. Vasilyev.

The forum was opened by the First Deputy Chairman of the Committee on Budget and Financial Markets of the Federation Council Vladimir Petrov, Deputy Chairman of the Committee on Budget and Taxes of the State Duma Nadezhda Maximova, Deputy Finance Minister Alexei Lavrov and Deputy Head of the Federal Treasury Stanislav Prokofyev.

The implementation of anti-crisis measures of the RF Government, budget cuts at the federal and regional levels, abandonment of inefficient projects, a new version of the RF Budget Code, expanding the range of instruments for liquidity management of the budget by the Federal Treasury and other issues were discussed.

Head of SUE “MosFinAgency” Denis Mikhailov made a presentation “Moscow's borrowing policy in the context of economic uncertainty.”
